Sarah A. Holbrook, has been appointed postmaster at Keaton, Jackson county.

Hankla is the name of a new post office in Boyle county and James Hartman is postmaster.

The railroad commission will investigate why the L. & N. charges four cents a mile on the C. V. branch, on request of citizens of Bell county.

Charles Gash confessed to carrying concealed weapons at Danville and Judge McDowell gave him 39 days in jail and fined him $100. Such a fine is not calculated to make the boys "feet up" in the future.

Clint Jones, of Pine Knot, was shot and instantly killed in a "blind tiger" in Whitley county by Andrew Patrick, the result of an old grudge. The affray took place in the presence of half a dozen men. The murderer escaped.

Price Terry shot Jemima Gillum, of Jackson, on an excursion train and dangerously wounded her. Terry had accompanied Miss Gillum to Cincinnati, but she deserted him there and returned with another boy, which made him insanely jealous and he walked to where she was sitting and deliberately shot her.

Capt. Jacob Cozzat, aged 73, died Wednesday at Parksville of apoplexy. He was one of the most highly esteemed men in Boyle, prominent in business and church circles, and a veteran of the Union army. A widow and seven children survive him. Three of his sons, W. D., J. J. and S. E. Cozzat, are in the employ of the L. & N. railroad. He left a good estate.

Payne and Rice Gooch have received their new threshing machine, which they will run the coming season.

The democrats of this section are tried and true and, while believing that a bad man has not yet announced himself as a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, they are almost without a single exception for Gov. Beckham. The very complexion part which he has played in recent events and the able manner in which he has discharged his duties have placed him close to the hearts of Kentucky democrats. He is a worthy example for every Kentucky boy and his nomination will be a recognition of the abilities of our young men. Whoever is nominated will be elected by a large majority and we believe that Gov. Beckham will be nominated by a large majority and be elected by an overwhelming plurality. — L. C. G.

WOULD NOT SUFFER SO AGAIN FOR FIFTY TIMES ITS PRICE

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so bodily in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McFerdy's drug store and they recommended Phenacetin's Salve, Codliver and Diarrhoeal Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price — H. H. Wilson, Liverpool, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by Craig & Hocker.

Such cuts are positive proof of the toothless merit that grand remedy for curing all the ills of life. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold by Peony's Drug Store.

MORELAND.

Logan & Co., 13,050 pounds, $1,297.12; Han Rhee, 1,512 pounds, $90.72; A. A. Russell, 268 pounds, $10.40; Nunnelley & Mayberry, 5,025 pounds, $327.22; D. E. Hills, 1,476 pounds, $44.28; J. A. Cutler, 1,850 pounds, $121.87; Wright & Brown, 12,925 pounds, $1,292.50; Louis Smithers, 815 pounds, $50.70; J. A. Wright, 257 pounds, $25.58; Hobbs & Freeman, 3,117 pounds, $187.02; J. P. Cash, 2,828 pounds, $221.10; W. H. Wright, 7,042 pounds, $573.36; Reed & Braxdale, 3,536 pounds, $261.45; Millie Harmon, 8,683 pounds, $677.84; W. O. Williams, 5,540 pounds, $387.80; G. W. Musselman, 3,266 pounds, $228.02; T. P. Maxey, 1,725 pounds, $112.12; J. W. Williams, 1,215 pounds, $69.82; Peyton & Co., 4,897 pounds, $293.82; S. M. May, 3,612 pounds, $257.52, making a total of 93,255 pounds and bringing to the raisers a total sum of $7,109.65. This amount has been received and has been over 20,000 pounds more that will bring $1,400. We cannot see why the tobacco raisers should not do well in this county and the way is open for more. This business of course, is just like everything else; those who understand the business thoroughly and understand getting their tobacco handled properly are the ones who are making the money. The present crop is about all set and looks well. At present the acreage is larger than has been in this neighborhood for some time. Generally speaking, this tobacco is raised on knob soil, lying in from two to four miles of Moreland, and on land that is sold for from $2.50 to $5 per acre and on from two to five years' time. The same land will produce all other crops moderately well. Any information to prospective tobacco raisers will be cheerfully given by Mr. Daulton, or any other business man of Moreland.

Everybody is glad to see the prospects of the farmers receiving a good price for wheat, as it is true that when the farmer does well everybody does well, there being no wealth except that which comes from the earth in some shape.

Prof. John L. Douglass, a hypnotist and mind reader of National reputation, will be at the Garrard opera house, on Friday night, June 29. The press speaks highly of his wonderful work, wherever he has performed. Kept served seats on sale at Storres' drug store.

Such a large crowd will attend the contest July 12, that 50 cents will be charged for each seat on the ground floor of the opera house and 35 cents for balcony seats. Tickets are being reserved at McLochert's drug store and as the price is the same it is wise to select them at once.

Mr. Luther Simpson and Miss Ollie Dunn, of Buckeye, were married at the court house on Wednesday by Judge Burnside. Rev. J. C. Maseec, has moved to Mansfield, O. This leaves only one resident preacher here and he is bereft only part of the time. The barbershop is plentiful and we need more laborers.

I am in favor of Henry Watterson and Billy McKinley going on with noble work of christening the world. Let them plant the flag on every butin China and begin to republicanize the inhabitants, telling them of the grand achievements of that party, and teaching them to put the cross under the log cabin. This is the first lesson in their citizenship.

The sad news of the death of G. Jones Salter, in Arkansas, was received here Monday evening. He left here several years ago, being at the time of his death, about 40 years old. He was a son of the late Gabriel Salter and he had a host of friends and relatives in this country, being a brother of Capt. Mike Salter and Mrs. W. N. Bush. His wife was Miss Margaret Yantis, who with two children survive him.

About 2,500 people went to Sells & Gray's show Wednesday, and many were disappointed, as much that was advertised failed to materialize, yet the same show could return in a few months and draw a large crowd. Counting all the exhibitions, they realized about $900, and yet nine-tenths of those who attended are ready to say that the times are hard, and it is true. Most of them had to go to take the women and children, but Owen Riggs and Jack Hatt were honest enough to say that they went to see the show.

Mr. R. H. Batson is attending French Creek Springs. Mr. T. C. Truett looks much better since his return from Colorado and he claims that he is cured of asthma. At last accounts from China Vice Admiral Seymour, with his international column, was intrenched eight miles from Tien Tsin. He is believed to have with him all the foreign ministers and the first expedition of marines sent to Pekin. On Monday he photographed that he was terribly harassed and could only hold out another two days. He has 63 men killed and over 200 wounded. He asked 2,000 reinforcements. A composite force of 2,300 men has been sent him from Tien Tsin, but whether this force has succeeded in joining him has not been learned.

A NONOGENARIAN CALLED TO HIS REWARD

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JUNE 29, 1900

W. P. WALTON.

For Congress.

HON. G. G. GILBERT

Of Shelby County.

BEFORE the passage and during the discussion of the Goebel election law, this paper enlivened so strongly against it that certain smart Abeck newspapers had the audacity to question our democracy. We took the ground that such a law was unnecessary, that Kentucky is democratic on a full vote and a fair count and that the party should avoid all semblance of partisanship in having the vote honestly cast and fairly counted. We were not much more in love with the bill after it had become a law, but when the court of appeals pronounced it constitutional and the democratic convention adopted it as a part of its platform we ceased to kick against the prieks and deferring to the wisdom of the many duly expressed by the accredited authorities of the party, we fell into line and remained in line until we saw how far short the law fell of securing its original intention of preventing frauds and how it was used by its enemies to frighten timid people and produce dissensions in our own ranks. Instead of preventing frauds, all manner of wickedness was concocted and carried out by the republicans, who used it as a club in the canvass and as a tool during and after the election. Experience has shown that it is sadly defective and it is the part of wisdom to profit by it. Instead of an aid to democratic success, it is a handicap and a promoter of dissensions in our own party. Those nearest to the lamented Gobbel say he would have had it materially changed if he had lived, by divesting it of its partisan character and amending it so as to cure the defects that experience has shown. This being the case, there is no reason for the admirers of the martyred statesman to cling to the law for the sake of him who reluctantly permitted his name to be given it, and for that and numerous other reasons we think the party should modify and amend the law as to make it thoroughly non-partisan and leave no semblance of unfairness to it. By so doing we will not only do right, but win back many a straying brother as well as take from the common enemy its most dangerous weapon. Kentucky democrats embrace the brains and wealth of the State and though it has to fight ignorance and vicelessness, fraud and venality, it can and will win without any so-called legal helps, or by taking unfair advantages. Let democrats then remove the stumbling block in the way of complete harmony among themselves and charm the republicans at one and the same blow. The proper amendment of the election law will do it. Let it be done thoroughly and quickly.

How the world is given to hero worship and bow little claim some of its so-called heroes as to the honor, is shown in the case of Roosevelt. His alleged ride up San Juan hill and his accomplishments have been greatly exaggerated and magnified. What he did there would have barely been worth recording but for the purpose it was intended—to boom him politically.

THE Indiana republicans are not all bad, the more decent of them having made themselves felt by causing the leaders to abandon the idea of putting Assassin Suspects Taylor and Finley on the stump. They will not be pushed to the front nor permitted to take any part in the campaign.

JOHN L. POWERS was arrested again in Harlan county for being accessory to the assassination of Gov. Goebel, but an partisan neocounty judge turned him loose on Taylor's so-called pardon. This thing is getting monotonous. Let Gov. Beckham offer a reward that will bring Powers to justice and stop his defiance of law.

BUCKNER, Brown, Knott, Breckinridge, Clay, Owens and the other great democratic leaders of the past will not be at Kansas City.—Louisville Commercial. No they will be off shedding crocodile tears over the assassination of Goebel, which they and assassin organizes like yours made possible.

EDITOR B. J. NEWTON, of the Owenton Herald, wants the honor of taking the vote to Washington, if Bryan carries Kentucky. The Nebraskan is sure to do that and the slight token of appreciation of a long life of faithful service ought to be shown the veteran editor by acclaim.

IN order to disguise himself, Assassin Suspect Taylor has shaved off his moustache, but he may always count on being recognized as long as he carries that mug and sports that portion of his face that has been dily described as hog-jaw.

WARS and rumors of wars, famine and pestilence, earthquakes in divers places and other portentous signs seem to point to the beginning of the end and to the times of great tribulations and sorrows.

TAYLOR says he is sure that McKinley will carry Kentucky. He is much surer though that if he, himself, comes back to Kentucky his neck will be stretched.

Gov. BECKHAM does not think that the State ought to pay Taylor's body guard at Frankfort. Neither does any other honest man think so.

THE prohibitionists in National convention raked McKinley fore and aft and say that by his example as a wine drinker at banquets and a wine server at the White House he has done more to encourage the liquor business, to demoralize the temperance habits of young men and to bring Christian practices and requirements into disrepute than any other president this Republic has had. They further charge upon him responsibility for the army canteen, with all its dire brood of disease, immorality, sin and death in this country, in Cuba, in Porto Rico and the Philippines. And yet many of these same so-called prohibitionists will walk up and vote for him election day same as if he was an immaculate temperance man.

DEWEY's head is still level. He says Bryan will be elected.

CALL FOR PRECINCT CONVENTIONS.

Pursuant to the order of the democratic State executive committee, the democrats of Lincoln county will assemble at their respective voting places in each precinct July 14 at 2 P. M. standard time, for the purpose of appointing eight county delegates to the State convention at Lexington, July 19th, to nominate a candidate for governor.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

The Arkansas democrats nominated Jeff Davis for governor.

Hon. G. G. Gilbert will deliver an address before Tammany Hall, New York, by invitation, July 4.

Ex-Vice President Stevenson declined to be an alternate to the National convention from Illinois, regarding it as a slight.

It is thought that the assassination suspects at Georgetown will get a continuation because of their inability to get Taylor and Finley there as witnesses.

Some of the thrifty colored delegates to the Philadelphia convention sold the use of their badges for $10 to people who were anxious to look upon the convention proceedings.

The convention hall at Kansas City will be turned over to the democratic National committee on Monday. Two New York delegates are the first to arrive for the convention.

Richard Croker, Edward Sulzer and ex-Senator Murphy, of New York, will visit Mr. Bryan at Lincoln before going to Kansas City to attend the democratic National convention.

Speaking of his running mate, Mr. Bryan says that "no man worthy to be considered for such an office, that vice president would accept a nomination upon a platform repugnant to his views on any important issue."

The president has assigned Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, the hero of El Caney, to command the American troops in China.

Just after being released from a long term in the Ohio penitentiary, the noted counterfeiter, Miles Ogle, died at Columbus.

Lightning struck the Louisville Trust building. A hundred people in the offices there were severely shocked but none seriously.

Sheriff Neal Morrison and two deputies were shot and killed while pursuing two men who had broken jail at Arapahoe, Oklahoma.

Congressman Grosvenor, of Ohio, will be the 1st of July orator at the Lexington Chautauqua, which is now open, with interesting programs each day.

Nine insurgent leaders, including Gen. Philo P. Lee, have been released from prison at Maulana upon taking the oath of allegiance to the United States.

It is said that the Chinese force about Pekin aggregates 360,000 men, armed with 220 seven-centimeter Creusot guns, 18 Krupp guns and 150 Maximians.

John W. Gates, the steel and wire magnate of Chicago, recently lost $100,000 in a single sitting at baccarat in a gambling club on the Boulevard des Capucines.

Some of the democrats who favor amending the Kentucky election law are talking of submitting a resolution to the democratic State convention, July 19, requesting Gov. Beckham to call an extra session of the Legislature to consider amendments to the law.

There may be something in this: "The men who for the sake of expediency would listen to the howlers who demand the repeal of the election law, lose sight of the fact that they are simply throwing away a principle in the shadow of some support they will never get."—Shelbyville Sentinel.

Illinois democrats nominated Samuel Aschuler, of Peoria, for governor, and elected Carter H. Harrison, A. S. Trude, James T. Clegg and James R. Williams delegates-at-large to the National convention. The platform endorses Bryan and the Chicago platform.

The National prohibition convention met in Chicago Wednesday, with 693 delegates, representing 37 States. Samuel Dickie was elected permanent chairman. The platform deals solely with the prohibition question, all other issues being ignored. President McKinley and his administration are severely arraigned. A resolution endorsing woman's suffrage was adopted by the convention.

Gen. W. H. Gentry had a number of Goebel and anti-Goebel men to dine with him at Lexington, including Gov. Beckham, and as a result it is stated that an extra session of the Legislature will be called by Gov. Beckham to repeal the Goebel Election law. The tip is that Beckham will not wait for the democratic convention there in July to act. Blackburn and McCreary were to be present, but did not attend.

Mr. Verkes is a director in the Louisville Commercial, one of the most blatant organs of assassination to the State. The Commercial has all along endorsed the course of Taylor, now a fugitive from justice in another State, and Mr. Verkes can not dodge the issue. He is one of the gang who upheld Taylor when Gov. Goebel was killed.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

Ex-Gov. David R. Farnells, of Missouri, and Congressman Joseph C. Sibley have bought 6,000 acres of land in Dallas county, Texas, for Congressman Joe Bailey. The land is worth $200,000 and they will give Mr. Bailey 30 years in which to pay them back. The latter will take his string of trotters now near Lexington, to his farm in the Lone Star State and will run an extensive breeding business.

The Stanford JOURNAL has contributed to the coming State campaign 22 16-inch lyddite shells to be fired at the republican candidate for governor whenever he shall appear in the public asking for election at the hands of Kentuckians. In another column we publish these thunderbolts and suggest they be clipped out and kept for future reference. No better campaign literature was ever condensed into such brief space, and if Verkes is not placed thereby in the middle of a — of a fix, we are certain his genteel exterior covers a heart of stone, one fit for treason, stratagems and spoils.—Richmond Climax.

Worked Hard for It.

"You seem to have quite a sum in your bank, Bobby," remarked the visitor.

"Yes," said Bobby; "ma gives me ten cents a week to coming to the table with clean hands and face."

"Ten cents is a good deal of money for a little boy to earn every week."

"Yes, ma'am, but I have to do a large amount of work for it." —Cincinnati Enquirer.

Halt-Praise.

The census official was very much perplexed over the lists from a rural town.

"I don't understand this at all," he said, referring to the long list of ages.

"Why, every boy and girl in the place is rated under nine years of age."

"I can explain matters," spoke up his assistant. "You see, the census was taken the same day the circus was in town." —Chicago Daily News.

Her Approval.

"What do you think of my new hat?" said Willie Washington, as he donned a low-crowned affair with a twist of gaudy material around it.

"I like it very much," answered Miss Cayenne. "The wearing of it is another glad assurance that this is a free country, where people may do anything they choose so long as it's harmless." —Washington Star.

Feminine Electroneering.

"I thought you said you never again would elect her president of your club," he suggested, after she had told him all about the result of the club election.

"Well, we didn't intend to," she replied, "but when she broke down and cried we just couldn't help it." —Chicago Post.

That Was Unreasonable.

"Well," said Mr. Giddings, at length, "I'd buy a typewriter from you if you would give me the proper sort of guarantee."

"I'll give you every guarantee in reason," said the agent. "What do you want?"

"I wish you to guarantee that it will split correctly." —Town Topics.

No Fun for the Prince.

"Did you go to the girl's college before supper, major?"

"Yes, little gal."

They say it was a circus, major."
